

What was it like being a Viking?

Map of Viking Homelands and Settlements

Key

- Settlements
- Viking homelands
- ↑ Viking

We learnt about where the Vikings came from, how they travelled and why they decided to settle here.

Vikings Poster

Who were the Vikings?

The vikings were people from an area called Scandinavia. You might know it better as Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

Where did the Vikings come from?

The Vikings came from a place called Scandinavia which is also known as Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

What did the Vikings do?

The Vikings were warriors and boats get they were also farmers. They are family members, traders and ship builders.

Viking picture:

How did they get here?

The vikings came on long-ships towards Scotland, England and Ireland.

When did they come to Britain and why?

The vikings invaded Britain in AD 793. They came to steal valuable objects.

Other Viking Facts:

For clothes Viking men wore tunics and trousers while women wore long dresses with a pin across the top.

We did some of our own research to find out about the Vikings.

We explored artefacts from the Viking times.

We visited Lindisfarne (Holy Island). We noticed how easy it was for the Viking warriors to attack the monks at the priory.

We did our own research to complete our own Viking Job advert.

